Preface

This booklet was conceived by the authors as a timely and useful guide to bookstores in the Toronto area serving the large clientele of immigrants from Central and Eastern Europe, as well as second and third generation Canadians whose heritage is linked with this region. We hope that the information in this guide will be useful to both the general reader and scholars interested in the study and purchase of books from these countries. On closer examination, the reader will find that the services provided by these bookstores are just as useful as the materials contained on their premises. Every effort was made to produce as accurate a listing as possible for each bookstore. This does not, however, preclude the possibility of inadvertent or undetected errors.

We attempt no evaluations or endorsement of these institutions or the services they provide. Inclusion was determined by the geographic areas covered by the Petro Jacyk Central and East European Resource Centre as reflected in the table of contents. We hope that this compilation will serve as a reference guide to the wealth of bookstores in the Toronto area supplying Central and East European material.

This is the second edition of this guide. Many of the vendors listed in the 1996 guide no longer exist or no longer sell books. Instead new bookstores are included, many with email and internet addresses. In fact, some are online bookstores only. The electronic version of this guide has direct links to their home pages. For the electronic edition, please visit: www.pjrc.library.utoronto.ca
